14th National and 1st International Conference on Humanities and Social Sciences 2020 (NIC-HUSO 2020)

Challenges of Humanities and Social Sciences in Digitalization: Flourish or Perish?

June 25-26, 2020

at A-One the Royal Cruise Hotel, Pattaya, Chon Buri, Thailand

Organized by Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Burapha University Thailand

Rationale:

Amidst the dramatic disruptions of technological advancements, a feeling of insecurity inevitably pervades our present society. To thrive in this disruptive world, we need to be not only technologically literate, but also able to tackle the complexities of our digital transformation. In this landscape, the relevance of the study of humanities and social sciences has been challenged despite its potential to provide solutions to many multi-faceted issues. It is, therefore, imperative for humanities and social sciences scholars to demonstrate their value in creating and maintaining an advanced society.

Institutions of higher education in the age of disruption need to reflect on their place in society. The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences at Burapha University (HU-SO BUU) has been a long-standing academic force for almost seven decades. Since its inception, HU-SO BUU has contributed to the body of knowledge of many varied fields of study, as well as educating and producing outstanding graduates who go on to serve the Eastern region and Thailand.

In addition to being aware of the challenges brought by societal changes, HU-SO BUU envisions opportunities for the humanities and social sciences in a dynamic world. For the past 14 years, HU-SO BUU has hosted national conferences. In 2020, we are expanding our horizon by inviting international researchers, scholars and graduate students to our national and international conference entitled: Challenges of Humanities and Social Sciences in Digitalization: Flourish or Perish?

The expected outcomes of the conference are threefold:

1. To provide a platform for researchers, scholars, and graduate students to exchange their knowledge and expertise in the areas of humanities and social sciences;
2. To provide an internationally recognized platform for disseminating research;
3. To establish a national and international network in the areas of humanities and social sciences.

This 2-day national and international conference on “Challenges of Humanities and Social Sciences in Digitalization: Flourish or Perish?” comprises three main activities:

1. Panel Discussion entitled “Impacts of Digitalization on Humanities and Social Sciences” The organizer has invited:

- David Norcross, Managing director, Lexicon Business Communication, Australia
- Sho Fukutomi, a specially appointed lecturer from Global Initiative Center, Kagoshima University, Japan
- Arunee Wiriyachitra, a renowned language education scholar, Thailand

The scope of the panel discuss covers languages, social sciences, and economics in digitalization.

2. Special lectures or workshops by the invited guest presenters;

3. Paper presentations by Thai and international researchers, scholars and graduate students.

The papers accepted to present are in the fields of humanities, social sciences, and applied sciences as below:

- Humanities: languages, linguistics, literature, folkloristics, psychology, philosophy, religion studies and arts;
- Social sciences: sociology, anthropology, history, and economics;
- Applied sciences: communication arts, information science and library science, education, and cultural studies
